Plugged In Leadership is a partnership of Innovative Edge Consulting and Gabrielle Consulting.

The JOHN MAXWELL Team

As important as what you learn is who you learn it from.

Plugged In Leadership

You are making a wise decision to invest in yourself and your dream. Get plugged in to other tools to power up your personal growth and leadership potential.

Attend one of our 6-week leadership mastermind courses, full-day seminars, or shorter workshops. Topics encompass a variety of leadership topics. Participants are people who:

- Have achieved success and are ready for new challenges
- Are contemplating a career change
- Are entrepreneurs or executives
- Are young professionals
- Are nearing retirement or newly retired
- Want to learn and grow
- Are people in transition of life and career changes
- Allow fear to get in the way of true success
- Are ready to achieve their leadership potential

Don't have time for a seminar or class? Consider our Executive Coaching services. We offer individual or group coaching to help you reach your maximum potential.

Michelle L. Newell specializes in adding value to businesses and individuals using proven teaching systems and 30+ years of real-world experience.
